INSPIRE, INVITE, AND THANK ARE THE FOUNDATIONAL PRACTICES OF ANY GIVING PROGRAM.

Doing all three of these vital practices will grow generosity as a regular spiritual practice in your community of faith and support the mission of the church.

Inspire!

Our generosity is our grateful response to God's vast generosity in our own lives. God's generosity inspires us to participate in God's mission in the world. As disciples of Jesus, this is how we make a positive difference as individuals and families—in our own community through the mission of our congregation, and across our country and around the globe through the Mission and Service of The United Church of Canada. When we are inspired, we eagerly discover the answers to:

- What is God's mission for me in my daily life?
- What is God calling us to do and be in our community?
- How do we model compassion, provide community, and offer hope?
- How do we serve God in mission to the wider world?

Helping You to Inspire

Opportunities to inspire can be found in everything we do as church. We inspire by sharing stories and images of disciples in action making a difference in people's lives.

The Called to Be the Church Congregational Giving Program provides

- Information on how to prepare Why I Give testimonies
- Step-by-step instructions to create a Narrative Budget
- Worship outlines, sermons, and children/youth programming
- Communication tools: bulletin covers and inserts; digital slides; and suggestions for oral and written announcements

Inspiring examples of living our faith Inspire gratitude.
Inspire generosity. Inspire giving.

You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity,
which will produce thanksgiving to God...

2 Corinthians 9:11

Invite!

Make an invitation to join with other disciples as we respond to the call to live faithfully and be the church. We invite all people of our faith community to contribute to God's mission here in our congregation, in our community, and through the Mission and Service of The United Church of Canada.

The invitation is most effective when we reach out in a clear, direct, and personal way. We encourage a conversation. We invite people to prayerfully consider how they will respond to God's generosity in their lives. Ideally, every individual feels they have been personally invited to

- Join us and others in doing God's mission
- Participate in supporting God's mission
- Make an appropriate and meaningful gift of treasure as well as of time and talent

Helping You to Invite

The Called to Be the Church Congregational Giving Program provides

- Ideas for creating a Letter of Invitation that is mailed or delivered to everyone in your congregation
- Step-by-step instructions on how to host a community meal—a fun and inspiring way to share stories of your faith and ministry, and to invite everyone to give
- Decision-making tools and templates to help everyone make an informed and intentional gift of money as well as gifts of time and talent

The ultimate goal is to Invite every person every year to participate.

Thank!

God is generous again, again, and again. So we can find ways to say "Thank you" again, again, and again. A culture of generosity is built on a foundation of gratitude. We cannot say "Thank you" too many times. It's just that simple!

Helping You to Thank

The Called to Be the Church Congregational Giving Program emphasizes how to ensure our gratitude and thanks are

- Timely: a message of thanks is provided soon after we receive a gift
- Personal: the "Thank you" is delivered face-to-face or in a handwritten note or by e-mail
- Sincere: the message communicates what a difference a person's gift will make

We Thank God for the blessings in our lives. We Thank each other for sharing them. We cannot Thank enough.
